A smoking kerosene lamp revealed a supper table of almost institutional proportions. There were four sons and two daughters of the Tumlin union, strapping lads and lasses all of them, with more than a common dower of lusty health and a beauty that was something deeper than the perishable iridescence of youth. There was Fremont, named from the explorer-soldier; there was Orlando, named from a local great man of whom Warren Rodney had anticipated a helping hand at the time; there was Eudora, whose nominal origin was uncertain, unless it bore affiliation to that of Orlando; there was Sadie, thus termed to avoid the painful distinctions of "old Sally" and "young Sally," and, lastly, like a postscript, came Dan—with him, fancy, in the matter of names, seemed to have failed. Dan was now six, a plump little caricature of a man in blue overalls, which, as they had descended to him from Richards in the nature of an heirloom, reached high under his armpits and shortened the function of his suspenders to the vanishing point.

Eudora was now sixteen, and the woman famine in all the land had gifted her with a surprising precocity. Eudora knew her value and meant to make the most of it. Unlike her mother in the old Black Hills days, she expected more than a "home of her own."

Tonight four suitors sat at table with Eudora, and she might have had forty had she desired it. Any one of the four would have cheerfully murdered the remaining three had opportunity presented itself. Supper was a mockery to them, a Barnum feast. Each watched his rivals—and Eudora.

Her mother, mulling her supper with toothless impotency, renewed her youth vicariously, and, while she quarreled with her daughter from the rising of the sun to the setting of the same, she added the last straw to the burden of the distracted suitors by announcing that a comfort Eudora was to her and how handy she was about the house.

Warren Rodney supported the air of an exile at his own table. Beyond a to free it from an escaped splinter from the snuff brush. "When me an' paw war keepin' comp'ny satin warn't good enough for me. He 'lowed I wuz to have half creation. Since we wuz married he ain't never found time, endurin' all these years, to build me a bird house. I wuz raised in Tennessee, an' we uns had a house for martins made out'n gourds, an' it was pearty."

"Mrs. Rodney"—Swift leaned toward her and whispered something in her ear. She regarded him tentatively, then grinned. At her time of life why should she put faith in the promises of men? "You fix it up, an' you get your bird house," was the conclusion of his sentence.

While this discussion had been in progress the viands had not been neglected except by such members of the company as had been bereft of appetite by loftier emotions—in consequence of which the table appeared to have sustained a visitation of seven-year locusts. Eudora, ever economic in the value she placed not only upon herself, but her environment, proposed to her guests that they should wash the dishes, an art in which they were by no means deficient, being no exception to the majority of range bachelors in their skill in homely pursuits. And thus it came to pass that Eudora's suitors, swathed in aprons, meekly washed dishes shoulder to shoulder, while their souls craved the performance of valorous deeds.

As this was the last stage station on the way to Lost Trail, Mary Carmichael was perforce obliged to content herself till Mrs. Yellett should call or send for her. After supper, Chugg, with fresh horses to the stage, left Rodney's, apparently for some port in that seemingly pathless sea of foothills. That there should be trails and defined routes over this vast, unvaried stretch of space seemed more wonderful to Mary than the charted highroads of the Atlantic.

Very lonely seemed the Rodney home among the great company of mountains. A brooding desolation had settled on it at close of day, and all the laughter and light footsteps and gayly ringing voices of the young folk could not dispel the feeling of being adrift in a tiny shell on the black waters of some unknown sea, or thus it seemed to the stranger within their gate.

Mrs. Rodney retired within the flap of her sunbonnet after the evening meal, settling herself in the rocking chair as if it were some sort of conveyance. Warren Rodney took down a gun from the wall and began to clean it. His industry with the gun was of a part with the impotent dawdling in the garden. His eyes would seek for the rag and the bottle of oil in a dull, glazed way, and, having found them, he would forget the reason of his quest. Not once that evening had they rested on his wife or any member of his family. He had shown no interest in any of the small happenings of home; the frank rivalry of Eudora's suitors, the bickering of the girls and boys over the division of household labor.

From one of the rooms that opened to the world like a stage to the audience Mrs. Rodney kept her evening vigil. The last faint amethystine haze on the mountains was deepening. They towered about the valley where the house lay with a challenging immensity, mocking the pitiful grasp of these pygmies on the thousand hills.

Eudora now came to her mother with great news. Hawks had taken the first opportunity of being alone with her to tell her of Jim's release from jail and of his abortive encounter with Simpson in the eating house. He had not deferred the telling from any feeling of reticence regarding the disclosure of family affairs before strangers. News travels in the desert by some unknown agency. Twenty-four hours after a thing happened it would be safe to assume that every cow and sheep outfit in a radius of 300 miles would be discussing it over their campfires, and this long before there was an inch of telegraph wire or a railroad tie in the country. Hawks had merely reserved the news for Eudora's private ear because he hoped this to gain an advantage over his three

A NOTABLE REVELATION

How the Mutual Life Insurance Company Has Been Seeking to Mold Public Opinion.

Di-patches Saying That McCurdy Had Made a Good Impression Commanded Double Rates.

New York, Oct. 25.—At the session yesterday of the legislative committee investigating the insurance companies the affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance company were under consideration, and it was brought out that this company was paying for the dissemination throughout the country of reports of this investigation that were favorable to the company. Charles J. Smith, a newspaper man, was the witness. He is employed by the Mutual Life to do a large number of things, but a month ago was placed in charge of sending out these reports. Mr. Smith had vided a number of vouchers for the payment of this work, and these aggregated $11,000, with more bills to come in. He thought the amount to date would reach $14,000.

Mr. Smith wrote these reports and submitted them to Allan Forman, who owns the Telegraphic News bureau, and $1 a line was paid by the Mutual Life for the service. Clippings from various papers about the country were shown to the witness and identified as the dispatches he wrote and sent to Mr. Forman. These were sent to about 100 papers, but Mr. Smith did not know whether the papers were paid for inserting them. In one dispatch Mr. Smith wrote that Mr. McCurdy's attitude on the stand made a distinctly favorable impression, and for this he had to pay $2 a line. This, he said, was worth it.

Following Mr. Smith, Walter Sullivan, who has charge of the magazine advertising department, was called. He said the Mutual advertised in twelve magazines last year at a cost of $42,000. Advertising in insurance papers cost about $30,000 more, but he could not tell where the remainder of the account of $32,797, the amount charged up to advertising last year, was spent.

Earlier in the day Emory McClintock, the actuary of the Mutual Life, was on the stand. The entire early session of the day before recess was given over to his explanations of technical insurance. Mr. McClintock practically advocated no laws for the supervision to give the reports publicity. He thought the public could take care of themselves and that publicity was the best law. Asked how far this view was shared in official circles, he thought he was somewhat of a missionary along that line.

John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, was examined and when the adjournment was taken last evening his testimony was unfinished. While lacking the startling features of the testimony of some of the other life insurance presidents who have testified, Mr. Hegeman's remarks and explanations were none the less interesting, especially his statement that $876,000 was given to the industrial policy holders of his company last year without any obligation whatever. Mr. Hegeman further said that in eight years his company had voluntarily given to the policy holders $6,000,000. This was in extended, mortuary dividends and liberalized policies during epidemics, floods and fires.

It was brought out that, while the company carried collateral loans throughout the year, none appeared in the annual reports on Dec. 31. This was explained by the witness, who said that all collateral loans were transferred on the last day of the year to Vermilye & Co., the bankers, under an agreement, and were bought back again in January. This was done, according to the witness, to avoid the burden of applications for call loans from the Wall street district.

Mr. Hegeman did not encourage the call loan business from this section because it entailed keeping a ticker in his office, and he would not have one there. He further did not care to have his company known as a loaning company.

The large loans at such a low interest as 1½ per cent, especially the one to President John A. McCall of the New York Life, were taken up and Mr. Hegeman spoke strongly of his friendship for Mr. McCall, who he said was closer than any other man to him in the insurance business, outside of his immediate associates. Mr. McCall had rendered him valuable service that was of benefit to the company, and personally he thought the company could afford, and would have been justified, in paying Mr. McCall the few hundreds of dollars the loans amounted to. The same was true, he said, of Elias H. Dutcher, a director of the company, who also carried large loans with the company at low interest.

FIRST DAMAGE SUIT

Echo of Iroquois Theater Horror Being Heard in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The first damage suit against the proprietors of the Iroquois theater, which was burned Dec. 30, 1903, was commenced this morning in the United States circuit court before Judge Landis. Edna S. Hunter, who was badly injured in the fire, has brought suit for $25,000 against the theater company and the George A. Fuller Construction company, which erected the building. Two weeks have been occupied in securing a jury. It was completed late yesterday afternoon and Attorney Charles C. Spencer made the opening statement for the plaintiff. He declared to the jury that he would show by the evidence that the building ordinances were grossly violated by the theater proprietors.

Attorney Spencer announced that his first witness will be the plaintiff, Miss Hunter. She was with a party of six young women in the gallery. When the flames burst out she ran toward the exit through which she had entered the theater. She was knocked down, trampled on, bruised and burned, but finally escaped with her life. Two of her companions were burned to death, while the others escaped.

This suit is considered by lawyers to be of great importance. Hundreds of other suits aggregating millions of dollars in damages have been brought, and the evidence given and the verdict to be rendered in this first trial is of momentous consequences to all concerned.

Hancock Must Answer.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The coroner's jury to investigate the death of Miss Emma Smallwood, which occurred about ten days ago near Hyattsville, Md., has returned the verdict that the woman died of malpractice performed by a person or persons unknown to them, and holding Winfield Scott Hancock, a nephew of General W. S. Hancock, and his sister, Mrs. Amanda Mackall, the former having been arrested in connection with the case, to be accessories to the act.

WITH HEARTY ACCLAIM

The Magic City of the South Gave Greeting to World-Appointed "Magician of Diplomacy"

Gen. Rhodes, Editor of the Birmingham News, All But Breaks Into Poetry in His Introductory

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt concluded a strenuous day in Alabama by a two hours' visit to Birmingham, where his reception, in keeping with those given him at Montgomery and Tuskegee, was hearty and soul-stirring. His day began at 7 o'clock, when the special train left Montgomery for Tuskegee. Visits to the Tuskegee normal and industrial institute and to the Methodist female college were crowded into a little less than two hours, and the noon hour had just arrived when the executive stepped from his car in Montgomery. Here he spoke to a great throng under the shadow of Confederacy's first capitol, and was on his way again sharply at 2 o'clock. A few minutes before 5:45 p. m., on the night run to Little Rock, the president was cheered at every turn. The president's train arrived in Birmingham promptly on time. Mayor George B. Ward, surrounded by a reception committee, delivered the formal address of welcome at the station, and immediately afterward the party entered carriages and began the march to Capitol park, eight squares distant.

The parade was along North Twentieth street, and the entire line of march was packed with humanity. Rows of incandescent lights the full length of the street made the scene all the more brilliant as evening came on. The ovation to the president was continuous and he stood in his carriage the whole way acknowledging the outbursts of enthusiasm. At Capitol park under the glamor of thousands of electric lights the party entered the speakers' stand. General Rufus N. Rhodes, editor of the Birmingham News, welcomed the president on behalf of the citizens of Birmingham. He said:

"Mr. President and Fellow Citizens: Most genuine and cordial is the welcome extended by the magic city of the South to the magician of diplomacy—the pacificator of the nations. All classes and creeds with hearty acclaim and spontaneous enthusiasm greet the chief magistrate who cares not to be great save as he serves or saves the state! They hail with honor the man who in public and private life has established standards of thinking and doing that which will enable Americans and uplift and bless mankind. The single regret over the coming of the president is the fact that you visit is limited to two hours."

"Birmingham, with joy and satisfaction, salutes its distinguished comrade in renown, the most remarkable personality of the age, who bears with dignity and ease the burdens of his time and with pluck, integrity, learning and faith rushes to meet every problem and seize every opportunity and boldly, without protest or doubt, amid the plaudits of the universe, strides to the center of the world's stage."

Great applause greeted the president as he arose to speak.

AN AWFUL HARVEST

Record of Railway Casualties for the Fiscal Year.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The statement of railroad accidents recently issued by the interstate commerce commission covered only the last quarter of the last fiscal year. The figures for the entire fiscal year are now given as follows:

"The total number of passengers killed in train accidents was 350; passengers injured in train accidents was 6,498. The total number of employees killed in train accidents was 798; injured, 7,652. There were 187 passengers killed in other than train accidents and 3,542 injured; and 2,463 employees killed in other than train accidents and 38,374 injured; a grand total of all classes of 537 passengers killed and 10,440 injured, and 3,261 employees killed and 45,424 injured. This shows an increase of 117 passengers killed and an increase of 2,169 employees injured."

There were 6,224 collisions during the year, with a money loss of $4,849,054 and 5,371 derailments with a money loss of $4,862,602; a total of 11,595 collisions and derailments and a total money loss of $9,711,656, being damage to cars, engines and roadways.

Locomotive Lets Go.

Clinton, Ind., Oct. 25.—The boiler of the engine drawing a fast freight on the C. & E. I. railroad exploded at Jackson yards two miles north of here last night. Engineer Lemon sustained two broken ribs and was severely cut and burned; Fireman Clarence O'Connell of Danville, Ill., sustained a broken leg, and Head Brakeman John Snyder of Terre Haute was scalded and burned on the chest.

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG AND SICK WOMEN WELL.

Forty years ago, Dr. Pierce searched Nature's laboratory for a remedy with which to supplant the ignorant and vicious methods of treatment, with alcoholic stimulants, then in vogue, and still too commonly prescribed and advised for woman's peculiar ailments.

Nature abounds with most efficient remedies, and in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root, Dr. Pierce found medicinal properties, which when extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure glycerine, have proven most potent in making weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no alcohol; is not a "patent medicine," nor a secret one either.

"I was suffering with nervous headache, pains in the back and dizziness, so that at times I had to lie down for hours before I could raise my head," writes Mrs. Mary M. Thomas, of 387 Winston Street, Los Angeles, Cal. "After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I had a sleepless night, with the results that I kept on taking it until I was restored to health and strength. I shall never be without this great medicine, and shall take a few doses when I do not feel strong."

One of the principal uses of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the preparation of prospective mothers for the time of trial and danger that comes when a child is born. The "Prescription" is strengthening and invigorating and lessens pain and danger. It insures the perfect well-being and the perfect health of both mother and child. Every woman should know these things before she really needs to know them. There are many things in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, that every woman ought to know. This celebrated work reached a sale of 600,000 copies at $1.50 each. The expense of production having thus been covered, it is now being given away. A copy will be sent to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SITUATION AT NEW ORLEANS

It Is Felt That Yellow Fever Is Practically Dead.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—The clear record of nearly a week without a death from yellow fever was broken yesterday when in the afternoon two were made known to the authorities. For six days previously not a single case had resulted fatally. The authorities attached no importance whatever to the breaking of the record, insisting that while there were still cases under treatment of which there are now something less than a hundred, the probability of mortality must be taken into consideration. They contend that the disease has been practically wiped out, each day recording fewer cases that are under treatment. The new cases have dropped to practically nothing.

The fever situation itself attracts little attention now in the face of the early coming of the president and the widespread relaxation of quarantines.

JOINTS CLOSED

Brewers Accomplish What Authorities Fail to Do.

Kansas City, Oct. 25.—The brewers have ordered joint keepers in Kansas City, Kan., and the suburbs of Argentine, Armourdale and Rosedale to close, and today most of the 200 saloons in those places respected the order. What the state and county officials have not done in years, the brewers have themselves accomplished within twenty-four hours time.

Most of the joints are owned by the brewers. The others can secure no more beer and their supply is almost exhausted. The city officials who levied monthly fines upon the joints had said that they were powerless to close them, and this week at the instigation of Governor Hoch, W. H. McCamish was appointed assistant attorney general of Wyandotte county to see that the places stopped doing business.

They Want Suggestions.

New York, Oct. 25.—Grover Cleveland, Morgan J. O'Brien, and George Westinghouse, the stock voting trustees in the Equitable Life Assurance society, have sent out through the secretary, George F. Parker, circular letters to all the policy holders of the society, asking for suggestions as to the selection of the thirteen directors to be chosen by the president. The circular announces that the next annual election of directors will be held at the offices of the society in New York at noon on Wednesday, Dec. 6, when the trustees will vote for thirteen directors, of whom seven will be taken from the policy holders.

SORES-ULCERS THE BLOOD DISEASED -SYSTEM DISORDERED

When a Sore or Ulcer is slow in healing it is the best evidence of a diseased condition of the blood and a disordered system. They show that the bodily impurities, which should pass off through the natural channels of nature, are being retained in the system from some cause. The blood absorbing the waste matters becomes steeped in poison which finds an outlet through the Sore or Ulcer, keeping it inflamed, painful and festering. As the blood constantly discharges its poison into these places, they eat deeper into the surrounding flesh and tissues, growing larger and more offensive in spite of all the sufferer can do, until the entire health is affected. Washes, salves, powders and such treatment are desirable for the reason that they are cleansing and also help to relieve the pain, but they are in no way curative. The blood is filled with poison, and until it is removed the sore cannot heal. S. S. S. is the only cure for these evidences of impure blood. It goes down to the root of the trouble and cleanses the circulation of all poisons and impurities. S. S. S. enriches the blood and reinvigorates the different members of the body so that the impurities and waste matters can pass off as nature intended. Then the discharge ceases, the sore scabs over, new flesh is formed, and the place heals permanently. ok on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice you need without charge

Republican City Ticket.

For Mayor,
GEORGE G. GRAESSLE.
For Clerk,
FRED EVERBACK.
For Treasurer,
JAMES H. BOAKE.
For Councilmen-at-Large,
W. JESSE WEAVER,
HAL A. LOVE.
Councilmen,
1st Ward—SAMUEL HODAPP,
2nd Ward—AUGUST CORDS,
3rd Ward—JOSEPH BROWN,
4th Ward—JNO. W. MORTON,
5th Ward—FRANK BRETHAUER

UNCLE JAKE GOWDY was given a hearty welcome home Tuesday night in which a number of prominent Indiana men participated.

AS ELECTION day draws nearer the REPUBLICAN reiterates what it has previously said relative to the superior qualities of the men nominated by the republicans of this city. Every man whose name appears on this ticket is a representative citizen, loyal and true to the best interests of Seymour and the welfare of her people. Dr. G. G. Graessle is one of our best and most useful citizens and during the past year has demonstrated his eminent fitness for the office of mayor. He is a man of splendid ability and holds the confidence of all the people. Under his administration our city is sure to have honest, efficient and economical government. Seymour never had a better or more capable city clerk than Fred Everback, who is a candidate for reelection. He is attentive to duty and does all his work remarkably well. James H. Boake, our candidate for treasurer, is a man of superior qualifications for this very important office. He is a man of unquestioned integrity, a good scholar and an expert bookkeeper. Our candidates for councilmen-at-large, W. J. Weaver and Hal A. Love and our candidates for ward councilmen, Samuel Hodapp, August Cords, Joseph Brown, John W. Morton and Frank Brethauer, all men of integrity and will serve the city intelligently and faithfully. Every man on this ticket is worthy and well qualified and merits the support of the people.

GUTHRIE CREEK.

DOWLING—John Dowling died at his home near Ft. Ritner Sunday evening after an illness of a few days. He leaves a wife and children and several brothers and sisters to mourn his loss. Funeral Monday afternoon.

Uriah Sharp returned to Indianapolis Sunday.

Mrs. Hugh Morrison, who has been quite sick, is able to be up.

Joe Childers and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Childers' brother, John Dowling, Monday.

Mrs. Jose Glover and Mrs. Anna Reynolds, of Pea Ridge, went to Bedford Monday.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over ten years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for coughs, sore throats or colds; sure preventive of pneumonia. Guaranteed, 60c and $1.00 bottles at W. F. Peter Drug Co. Trial bottle free.

FREETOWN.

S. Z. Cross received a letter from his son, Ralph, at Westport stating that his little daughter Loraine was sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Stella Lucas, who has been in Indianapolis for several days taking medical treatment, returned home Saturday much improved.

Rome McElfresh, who has employment at Terre Haute, is here visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Denny visited Mrs. Myrtle Rucker at Seymour Sunday.

Mrs. G. F. Huber and daughters, Roxie and Lula and Mrs. Addie Spaulding made a business trip to Seymour last Friday.

Clyde Manuel visited his parents here Sunday.

By mistake our items last week said John Kindred went to Greencastle to enter the tin mills as a telegrapher. He has studied telegraphy here but only went to work in the mills.

A Modern Woodman's lodge has been organized here.

Cheated Death

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility, and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since I find they have no equal." W. F. Peter Drug Co. guarantee them at 50c.

Tired out, worn out women cannot sleep, eat or work; seems as if she would fly to pieces. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes strong nerves and rich red blood. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. W. F. Peters Drug Co.

TELEPHONE DEAL.

Combination May Extend to this County.

A correspondent of the Bedford Mail writes as follows:

"Since the New Long Distance Telephone Co., purchased the rural lines in Bartholomew county, negotiations have extended through Jackson county and are now busy in Lawrence.

Last week a representative of the New Long Distance Telephone company was here and looked over the lines east of the city, belonging to the Union Home Telephone Co. and negotiations are now on for the purchase of a controlling interest of this company. The object being to sever the connection of this company with the Central Union in this city and connect their line with the Hoosier company, thereby securing the future use of this company's lines for the independent people, which would add about 200 phones in Lawrence county and two valuable toll lines, one leading from Bedford to Leesville and the other from their Heltonville exchange via Norman Station to points in Jackson and other counties east."

There is no doubt about the tendency being towards telephone combination and it may be that negotiators involving properties in this county are under way.

A Daredevil Ride

Often ends in a sad accident. To heal external injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

WOMEN'S NEGLECT

SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost Is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness, leucorrhoea.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result.

The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Kate McDonald, of Woodbridge, N. J. writes:

"I think that a woman naturally dislikes to make her troubles known to the public, but restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling mine for the sake of other suffering women."

"For a long time I suffered untold agony with a uterine trouble and irregularities, which made me a physical wreck, and no one thought I would recover, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me, and made me well and strong, and I feel it my duty to tell other suffering women what a splendid medicine it is."

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

PEARIDGE.

Misses Gertrude Doerr and Mabel Goen visited the former's parents in Grassfork township over Sunday.

Alva Henderson, of Leesville, visited our school Friday afternoon.

Wm. Percy and family moved into their property at Weddleville last week.

Laura Hill, who has been at work in Lawrence county visited home folks last week.

Mrs. Henry Zollman is very low with rheumatism.

Mrs. John Grisamore spent Sunday in the family of Jake Harris at Medora.

John Holmes and family, of Bedford, are visiting at T. J. Holmes.

Newton Plummer and family, of near Bedford, visited at T. J. Plummer's Sunday.

Frank Lockman and family, of Thompsonville, Ill., Curtis Plummer and family, Peter Worley and family, Jim Starr and wife, of Sparksville, Cora Martin and Mrs. Lavina Hill, of Medora, were at P. G. Martin's Sunday.

Charles Eshom, of Medora, was on the Ridge Sunday evening taking pictures.

Mrs. Vance Goen and children, of Clearspring, are visiting at J. R. Sweeney's.

Mrs. May Root, of Bedford, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Martin.

Climatic Cures

The influence of climatic condition in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

SPARKSVILLE

Mrs. James Starr visited in J. G. Martin's family, of Pearidge, Sunday.

Eck Carr, of near Medora, was in our town Wednesday on business.

The Young Man and The World

BY SENATOR ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE.

PLAIN COMMON SENSE.

Few men have been held so highly by the young men of the country as is Senator Beveridge.

Rarely has the career of any one been so encouraging to the young man who expects to "do something."

Why?

Plowboy at 12; logger at 14; graduated from college, De Pauw, at 23; plainman, law clerk, lawyer; United States Senator at 36—that is what Senator Beveridge, poor and without a pull, has done by sheer pluck and hard work. And his steady conservative work in the senate has won him the equal regard of older men also.

No other man could be better equipped than Senator Beveridge to talk with young men about what they are going to do with their lives.

It is concentrated common sense. It does not preach, could not advise tiresomely. It reads like friends talking together.

It counsels cordially. It speaks encouragingly, as comrade to comrade. Fail of incident, brilliant with illustration, it reads like a story. It is as forcible, vigorous and healthy as the man himself. No young man of ambition can afford to be without it. It is practically helpful—it gets down to the A B C of living. Not a father nor a mother should fail to put it into the hands of their boys—it will inspire them and fascinate while it inpires. You will read it through if you begin it.

There are twelve chapters—every one of them loaded with that American wisdom called common sense. And the book is bright—not a dull page, not a dull paragraph, not a dull line.

It is written in the Indiana Senator's best style, and the man who cannot get new vigor in reading its crisp chapters is not a live American.

It is not only a brilliant book and a practical book—it is a big book, a big hearted, big-brained book. It is the frankest kind of a talk between a United States Senator who has been through the mill himself and every young man who must go through the mill himself. It is a talk with the young man of the young man's country by its most prominent young man.

AGENTS WANTED—Splendid opportunity for agents on Senator Beveridge's great book! It should go into every family where there is a son. Send for outfit and terms. Special territory assigned. Price $1.50 Net. Postage Additional.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS

Engineer Bruce Murphy was here last night to attend the engineers meeting. He returned home this morning accompanied by his daughters.

Oscar Murray, president of the B. & O. S-W. and Vice President Green passed through here last evening in a special car on their way from St. Louis.

It is announced that the B. & O. Southwestern railroad will expend $250,000 in Louisville for the purpose of increasing the terminal facilities of the company.

The B. & O. S-W. engineers closed their union meeting here Tuesday night with a banquet served in the Masonic Temple. At the night session about 35 were present which is counted a most excellent attendance. The meeting was one of much interest and questions of importance to the members of the Brotherhood were considered. Seymour people will be glad to have the engineers hold as many of their meetings as they can in this city.

DIED.

LUBER.—Mrs. Michael Lubber died this afternoon of general debility at her home in the southeast part of town at the age of seventy-six years two months and twenty-nine days, having been born in Germany on July 26, 1829. Her husband is the only surviving relative. The funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning at the St. Ambrose church conducted by Rev. Father Conrad. Burial at Catholic cemetery.

MCCRADY.—William McCrady, a former resident of this city, died about two weeks ago at his home in California. He lived in Seymour for many years, being at that time a conductor on the O. & M. railroad. He went to California some years ago and took employment as a baggage man on some railroad there. He is remembered by many railroad men and other residents of this city. He was probably near seventy years of age.

Sutherland Case.

According to a decision of the Supreme Court of the State yesterday the indictment against Ulysses G. Sutherland of Floyd county, who is charged with having hanged his wife, Geneva L. Sutherland, was properly returned. Sutherland, at the time of his arrest, was a church pastor in Floyd county. It was declared by his attorneys that the jury commissioner who selected the Grand Jury was unqualified to hold such a position on account of being a director in a traction company that was before the court in a civil suit.

Expensive Hunt.

At Columbus six men were fined Monday for "hunting game other than water fowl" on October 15. Fine and costs amounted to about $35 in each case. These men knew that this is the "closed season" and that they were not obeying the law as good citizens should always do. They plead guilty when caught.

A deputy game warden was in Seymour Tuesday to ascertain how the game laws are being obeyed in this vicinity.

New Books.

Books added to the Seymour Public Library:

Traction Cars Popular.

A many as ten people left the Panhandle train here from Seymour Monday morning, and as many as twenty Saturday morning, to take the interurban cars north, and about the same number from the train from Madison and this, too, is of daily occurrence, which is a strong argument for the popularity of the interurban lines, and proof that an extension of the Irwin lines from this city to Seymour and North Vernon would be a paying investment.—Columbus Times.

Missionary Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Seymour M. E. district convened in the Methodist church here today for a three days session. Owing to the heavy rain the attendance was interfered with today to some extent. Delegates are present from a number of the societies and others will come this evening and tomorrow. This evening Miss Rebecca Daily, returned missionary from India, is on the program for an address. An excellent program has been arranged for Thursday and Friday.

Sherrick's Trial.

The trial of David E. Sherrick, indicted by the September grand jury for embezzlement, grand larceny and conspiracy to commit a felony while he was Auditor of State, was Monday set for Nov. 27 in the criminal court.

Mrs. J. W. Luckey received today six fine Barred Plymouth Rock cockerels from Charlestown, Ind. to add to her already much improved flock for next year's raising.

The Mitchell Baptist church has extended a call to Rev. Geo. O. Webster, of Elizabethtown, Ohio, on the recommendation of Rev. A. B. Conrad, of this city, who was at Mitchell last evening by invitation to confer with the Baptist people there.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. Tilden Smith and Miss Bertie Wolfe Married on August 20th.

Yesterday it was rumored and today it was announced positively that Miss Bertie Wolfe, of this city, and Mr. Tilden Smith, of Vallonia, have been married for two months past, since the twentieth of August. The news of their marriage came as a great surprise to their many friends, who were expecting the wedding to take place sometime this month. Announcements of the marriage were received today.

On Monday, August 21, the day following the ceremony, the report was started that they had been married on Sunday night, but nothing sure could be ascertained and as Miss Wolfe denied that it was true, the report went no further. On the night of their marriage Miss Wolfe and Mr. Smith entertained several other friends until ten o'clock and for this reason the idea that they were married on that night hardly seemed probable, but between ten and eleven o'clock Rev. Harley Jackson, pastor of the Central Christian church, was called and the wedding solemnized. The report the following morning was made by several who saw the preacher leaving the house and could see no other reason for his having been there. Mr. and Mrs. Smith kept their marriage a secret from their friends because they were not ready to take up housekeeping and thought they could have some pleasure in the meantime at the expense of their very much interested friends. No one knew of the marriage at the time but Miss Wolfe's parents, but since the secret has been kept by them and a few of her most intimate friends. A week ago a number of young ladies gave a shower for her expecting the wedding to be soon and on Monday night Miss Wolfe gave a return party and as was her desire, the fact that she was already married was made known.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wolfe, of east Second Street and is one of the most popular young ladies of the city having taken part in all its social affairs. Mr. Smith is a highly respected young man, a member of the Elks Lodge here. Mr. Smith came up from Vallonia on No. 4 this morning, and the couple went on to Cincinnati where they will spend several days, returning by way of Indianapolis. They will be at their home at Vallonia after November 7th.

Facts Are Stubborn Things

Uniform excellent quality for over a quarter of a century has steadily increased the sales of LION COFFEE. The leader of all package coffees.

Lion Coffee

is now used in millions of homes. Such popular success speaks for itself. It is a positive proof that LION COFFEE has the Confidence of the people.

The uniform quality of LION COFFEE survives all opposition. LION COFFEE keeps its old friends and makes new ones every day.

LION COFFEE has even more than its Strength, Flavor and Quality to commend it. On arrival from the plantation, it is carefully roasted at our factories and securely packed in 1 lb. sealed packages, and not opened again until needed for use in the home. This precludes the possibility of adulteration or contact with germs, dirt, dust, insects or unclean hands. The absolute purity of LION COFFEE is therefore guaranteed to the consumer.

Sold only in 1 lb. packages. Lion-head on every package. Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.

SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE
WOOLSON SPICE CO., Toledo, Ohio.

20th Century Laurel Stove

—GUARANTEED FOR FIVE YEARS—

Why this Stove Makes Warm Floors

The hottest part of the fire being always against the fire pot as illustrated above, the greater part of the heat is radiated downward, heating the floor much more than a baseburner does. Two or three tons of slack or soft coal will heat the ordinary house, giving as continuous and uniform heat as heretofore could only be obtained with a hard coal baseburner.

We also carry a full line of all kinds of heater prices lower than the lowest. We have a big stock and must sell them.

BOLD CRACKSMEN

The Town of Ridgeville Held at Mercy of Burglars.

SAFE OF BANK LOOTED

Seven Bold Bandits Crack the Bank of Ridgeville and Hold Possession of Citizens at Bay.

After Securing $6,000 They Coolly Walk About the Town Shooting Out the Lights.

Ridgeville, Ind., Oct. 25.—Burglars blew open the safe in the bank of Ridgeville, stole $6,000, and, after a running battle with a posse of citizens in which the cashier of the bank and two of the robbers were wounded, the safe blowers escaped.

For more than an hour the town was practically at the mercy of the robbers, who openly walked the streets, shooting at everything in sight and apparently taking their time in leaving the scene of their crime.

Harlan Landes, the night watchman, was made prisoner by two of the robbers, who met him on the street, placed a revolver at his head and warned him to be still. After the burglars escaped Landes was found in a shed, where he was bound and gagged. As the two robbers were taking charge of the night watchman the other burglars went to a blacksmith shop and stole the tools which they used in forcing the doors of the bank.

While three of the robbers were trying to blow open the safe, four stood on guard and opened fire on the cashier, R. C. Branson, M. T. Sumption, president of the bank, and others who were aroused by the shock of the four explosions that were required to force open the doors of the big safe.

The first charge of nitroglycerine aroused R. C. Branson, who lives only a short distance from the bank building. He ran into the street, but as soon as he appeared the guards opened fire on him and he retreated into the house to get a shotgun. By a roundabout way Branson made his way to the home of M. T. Sumption and the two bank officers turned in a fire alarm. Meanwhile the burglars had succeeded in forcing the doors of the safe and by the time the citizens were aroused the cracksmen had obtained their plunder.

The burglars apparently did not fear capture, as they deliberately walked the streets and shot out the electric lights in wild west style. Branson and Sumption were determined to capture the burglars, and the cashier, at the head of a small party of citizens, tried to close in on three of the thieves. A running fight followed and Branson received a flesh wound in the forehead. He was only slightly injured and continued his pursuit until a bullet from the revolver of one of the robbers struck him in the ankle, crippling him so that he had to give up the fight.

HE WON HIS WAGER

How Pat McGrath Woke Up the Town of Chesterton.

Chesterton, Ind., Oct. 25.—The efforts of Patrick McGrath, a farmer of this vicinity to "live things up a bit" proved such a success that he is now in jail, and four Italians who were injured as the result of his efforts to "live up" are in the hospital.

McGrath found things too dull for him, and, noticing an engine standing on the tracks of the Lake Shore road, announced that he would bet anybody 25 cents that he would wake up the town inside of ten minutes. The wager was taken and McGrath, finding that the train crew was absent, climbed aboard the engine. He investigated the machinery for a few minutes, and finally pulled out the throttle to the last notch. The engine darted down the track and tore into a train of freight cars in which a number of Italians were eating their dinners. Four of the cars and the engine were smashed and four of the Italians seriously but not fatally hurt. McGrath escaped with but a few injuries.

Didn't Know He Was Out

Wabash, Ind., Oct. 25.—James M. Key, the founder of the Commercial bank at Andrews, coming to that town it was said without means and using the deposits as his own until the bank was wrecked, has, unknown to the citizens of Andrews, been released from the Jefferson Reformatory, where he was sentenced to two to four years imprisonment three years ago. No information was given the Andrews people of his escape. The first information that he was out was at large was when he was last week in St. Louis, Mo., where he was arrested by the Huntington street car and the victimized depositor it is said, will have him arrested if he can be found inside the state.

Judgment Rendered

Indianapolis, Oct. 25.—The $2,000 judgment which a jury awarded June J. Gregg of Cincinnati in her suit against her former mother-in-law, Sarah M. Gregg, for alienation of the affections of George Gregg, the plaintiff's former husband, and the defendant's only son, has been affirmed in the appellate court.

Frightful Suffering Relieved

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food C. C. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering.

As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spasms of backache, that seem almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me much relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in a short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same results." MRS. PARK, 721 S. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit you. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and always relieved me in a few minutes. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that suffering humanity. I can use this in behalf of suffering humanity." E. P. Fisher, Roxbury, Ill.

H. H. Rogers in Danger

Leavenworth, Kan., Oct. 25.—The Henry H. Rogers special train while standing in the union station yards here late last night, was struck by a runaway section of a freight train, ten cattle cars of which broke loose from the engine and ran backward down a heavy grade into the Rogers train. Mr. Rogers was asleep in his berth and the compact threw him across the berth, striking his head upon the wooden partition. A pane of glass were broken in the Pullmans, which were otherwise uninjured, but the freight caboose was shattered.

Mrs. Harrison's Return

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, widow of President Harrison, who has been spending the summer in Europe, passed through Utica yesterday on her way to her cottage on the Fulton chain of lakes. She will return this afternoon and proceed to her home in Indianapolis.

A WAY OPEN.

Many A Seymour Reader Knows It Well.

There is a way open to convince the greatest skeptic. Scores of Seymour people have made it possible. The public statement of their experience is proof of the like of which has never been produced before in Seymour. Read this case of it given by a citizen:

Mrs. Atlas Shannon of Third street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave me positive relief from the dull dragging pain in my back, banished the extreme sensitiveness over the loins which caused sharp twinges when stooping or moving quickly and removed the restless nights besides strengthening the renal organs that I was no longer embarrassed by the kidney secretions. I was greatly gratified by the satisfactory results I obtained and my advice to others is to go to Milburn drug store and procure Doan's Kidney Pills if in need of a remedy of this nature."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

REPUBLICANS UNITED

Former Local Disaffection in Indianapolis Is Disappearing.

Indianapolis, Oct. 25.—Ex-Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter, the Republican candidate here at the head of the city ticket, stated to your correspondent today that he feels absolutely certain of re-election by a majority of from 3,000 to 3,500. He would not be surprised if it should go higher than that. This is the first authorized estimate he has given out. He counts on making great gains on the Northside. The Second, known as the "statesmen's" ward, which has always been anti-Bookwalter, promises to give him a majority of 500 this time. Holtzman carried it before by 56. There are other wards in the same locality in which there was an army of anti-Bookwalter Republicans two years ago, but he feels he has most of them won over to his side. He says he is having fine meetings and that his chances are much brighter than at this stage of the campaign two years ago.

The question of municipal ownership is being discussed in the present city campaigns more than ever before. At Terre Haute and Fort Wayne, two of the largest cities in the state, it is the paramount issue. The Democratic mayoralty candidate, William Hossey, is pledged to bring about municipal ownership of public utilities at once. At Terre Haute both parties are making municipal ownership paramount to everything else. The candidates are Mayor Bidaman, Republican, and James Lyons, Democrat. There is a hard fight at Evansville and the Republicans are alarmed over the conditions, as the party is not united behind its mayoralty candidate, Senator Edgar Durrie. The last two administrations have run the town on the wide-open plan and the law-and-order people, regardless of party, are said to be rallying to the support of J. W. Boehne, the Democratic candidate, who camp within 82 votes of being elected four years ago. In most of the larger cities there is a red-hot fight in progress over the city offices, and there is less manifestation of party spirit than ever before.

While Governor Hanly has not caused a special investigation of the books of the auditor of state's office to be made, Warren Bigler, whom he appointed to succeed David E. Sherrick, has been going over everything very carefully. There does not seem to be any need for a "house-cleaning" as was feared at the time of Sherrick's removal, as he had an excellent force of deputies and clerks, who have kept everything in first-rate condition. In fact, Bigler has not found a single discrepancy and does not expect to. The governor and everyone else knowing anything about the conduct of the office has perfect faith in the honesty and integrity of such men as John Billheimer, chief deputy, John Reed, who was appointed receiver for the Sherrick securities, "Cy" Neal, chief of the insurance department, and George Bingham, who has been expert accountant in the office for many years. These men will all welcome a most sweeping investigation and a full statement of conditions so the public may know everything about the office.

Although the Hon. John K. Gowdy, former consul general to Paris, has stated since his return to America and retirement from office that he does not expect to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in 1908 or to ask for any political office, many politicians believe that he will be drawn into the fight some way. He is being so warmly received by his old friends that it convinces him that he is as great a power as ever among the "boys," and under the circumstances it would not be surprising if he should get into the running for governor. Those who have seen and talked with him since his return to Rushville say he is as vigorous as ever. "The same old Gowdy" is the way they express it. If that is true, then he may indeed become a factor, for if he is as strong as ever he will be a hard man to beat at any political game. Still, for the present at least, he is not mixing in the political game, but is preparing to resume life at Rushville where he left off eight years ago to go to Paris.

There will be a scattering of the members of the Indiana congressional delegation immediately after the municipal elections Nov. 7. Most of the members are at home now. While but few are taking any part in the municipal elections they are on the scene just for appearance sake. They want to give the impression that they are deeply interested in the outcome whether they are or not. Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks expect to leave here some time about the last week of November for Washington. Their home there is now being made ready for them. Senator Beveridge will leave about the same time, and Senator Hemenway, who is at Boonville, will take his family to Washington about Dec. 1. Most of the Republican members of the delegation will return, however, about Christmas time for the biennial party "love feast" to be held here.

Millionaire's Shocking Death

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Losing his balance as he was about to board a west-bound train which was approaching the Fifty-second street station of the Pennsylvania Railway, B. Frank Clyde, vice president of the William P. Clyde Steamship company, and millionaire clubman, was dragged under the wheels of the locomotive and instantly killed. Mr. Clyde was married only three months ago.

SEEING AMERICA.

Wonderful Scenic Trip Across Rocky Mountains to Oregon Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Oregon, via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23rd and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of the geography class in school to the time when those great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensive than ever. For only a slight difference in fare tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The return trip may be made over a different route, enabling travelers to view much more of the west. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland on account of conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agent of Pennsylvania lines.
